WORK SESSION

1. Discussion Item: Judicial Needs Study Update

Item Description: Following completion of the Judicial Needs Study, the County Commissioners learned about the longer-term facilities needs of the 8th Judicial District at a BoCC Work Session on August 31, 2022. Several facility options were reviewed, with each requiring significant capital investment by the County. The project team has further reviewed these options, looking for ways to reduce the upfront capital required. This is a next step in the process, identifying cost impacts by phasing the capital project options reviewed in August, 2022.
